

A high-quality kitchen sink from the Elite Stainless Steel Series is shown installed in a kitchen. The sink is made of brushed stainless steel and is set into a light-colored stone countertop. A modern, tall, arched faucet with a side handle is mounted on the sink. The backsplash is made of light-colored rectangular tiles. A window above the sink shows a view of greenery outside. To the left, a wooden cutting board and a glass jar are on the counter. The cabinets below the sink are made of dark wood with round knobs.
